DAILY GAZETTE.

The Defence of Fort Sumter.

From the New York Tribune.

On Thursday, the 11th of April, three of Gen. Beauregard's aids appeared at Fort Sumter, and brought a communication which stated that he had refrained from making any hostile demonstration, with the hope of finally obtaining the fort by a treaty, &c.—But orders having been received from Jefferson Davis to demand of Major Anderson, in the name of the Southern Confederacy, its surrender or evacuation, Major Anderson replied that he was sorry a request had been made which he could not grant; that he had already gone as far as his sense of duty and his sense of honor would allow.

Major Anderson also mentioned to one of his aids, aside and unofficially, that the garrison was out of provisions, having nothing but pork; that they could probably manage to live till Monday, the 15th. The aids carried this reply to Gen. Beauregard, who telegraphed it to Jefferson Davis, and also the remark that Major Anderson was nearly starved out.

The next morning, at half-past 1 o'clock, the aids came down with another communication from Gen. Beauregard to the effect that he had learned that the garrison was nearly starved out, and desired to know of Major Anderson on what day he would evacuate the fort; that Gen. Beauregard would allow him to evacuate and take him to any port in the United States, provided he would agree not to fire upon the batteries unless Fort Sumter should be fired upon.

[Query—Does this fact show that the dispatches to Major Anderson had been opened, and, knowing that an attempt to put provisions into the fort would soon be made, the boats coming in could be fired into, while Major Anderson would be preclude from protecting them?]

Major Anderson replied that he would be obliged to evacuate by Monday, the 15th, before noon, provided Fort Sumter or the flag that it bore was not fired upon. Councils of war were held immediately after the receipt of these two communications, which were unanimous in favor of the answer that was returned. The deputation which brought the second communication consisted of Major Lace, Col. Chism, Roger A. Pryor, Senator Chestnut and others. Maj. Anderson's reply was considered by them for fifteen or twenty minutes, when they returned an answer that the batteries would open their fires in one hour. This was at 3¼ o'clock on Friday morning. After this reply the deputy of Gen. Beauregard immediately left.

The sentinels were immediately removed from the parapets of Fort Sumter, the posterns closed, the flag drawn up, and an order sent to the troops not to leave the bomb proofs, on any account, until summoned by the drum. At 4:30 a. m., one bombshell was thrown at Sumter, bursting immediately over the fort. After the pause of a few moments the firing became general on the part of the batteries of the secessionists, doing the greatest credit to the artillerists. The command did not return a single shot until the men had had their breakfast.

As the number of men was so small, and the garrison so nearly exhausted by the several months of siege which they had gone through, it was necessary to husband their strength. The command was therefore divided into three reliefs, or equal parties, who were to work the different batteries by turns, each four hours.

The first relief opened upon the iron batteries at Cumming's Point, at a distance of 1600 yards, the iron floating battery, distant 1800 or 2000 yards at the end of Sullivan's Island, the enfilading battery on Sullivan's Island and Fort Moultrie. This was at 7 o'clock in the morning, Captain Doubleday firing the first gun, and all the points named above being opened upon simultaneously. For the first four hours the firing was kept up with great rapidity; the enthusiasm of the men, indeed, was so great that the second and third reliefs could not be kept from the guns. This accounts for the fact that double the number of guns were at work during the first four hours than at any other time.

Shells burst with the greatest rapidity over every portion of the work, hurling the loose brick and stone in all directions, breaking the windows, and setting fire to whatever it burst against. The solid shot firing of the enemies' batteries, and particularly of Fort Moultrie, was directed at the barbette guns of Fort Sumter, disabling one ten-inch columbiad (they had but two,) one eight-inch columbiad, one forty-two pounder, and two eight-inch sea-coast howitzers, and also tearing a large portion of the parapet away. The firing from the batteries on Cumming's Point were scattered over the gorge, or rear of the fort. It looked like a seive. The explosion of shells, and the quantity of deadly missiles that were hurled in every direction, and at every instant of time, made it almost certain death to go out of the lower tier of casements, and also made the working of the barbette, or upper uncovered guns, which contained all our heaviest metals, and by which alone we could throw shells, quite impossible.—During the first day there was hardly an instant of time that there was a cessation of the whizzing of balls, which were sometimes coming half a dozen at once. There was not a portion of the work which was not seen in reverse (that is, exposed by the rear) from mortars.

On Friday before dinner, several of the vessels of the fleet beyond the bar were seen through the portholes. They dipped their flag. The command ordered Sumter's flag to be dipped in return, which was done, while the shells were bursting in every direction. (The flagstaff was located in the open parade, which is about the centre of the open space within the fort.) Sergeant Hart saw the flag of Fort Sumter half way down, and supposing that it had been cut by the enemies' shot, rushed out through the fire to assist in getting it up. Shortly after it had been re-raised, a shell burst and cut the halyards, but the rope was so intertwined round the halyards, that the flag would not fall.

The cartridges were exhausted by about noon, and a party was sent to the magazines to make cartridges of the blankets and shirts, the sleeves of the latter being readily converted into the purpose desired. Another great misfortune was that there was not an instrument in the fort by which they could weigh powder, which of course destroyed all attempt at accuracy of firing. Nor had they tangeant scales, breech sides, or other instruments with which to poise a gun.

When it became so dark as to render it impossible to see the effect of their shot, the portholes were closed for the night, while the batteries of the secessionists continued their fire the whole night.

During Friday the officers' barracks were three times set on fire by the shells, and three times put out under the most galling and destructive firing. This was the only occasion on which Major Anderson allowed the men to expose themselves without an absolute necessity. The guns of the parapet—which had all been pointed the day before—were fired clandestinely by some of the men slipping up on top.

The firing of the rifled guns from the iron battery on Cumming's Point became extremely accurate in the afternoon of Friday, cutting out large quantities of the masonry about the embrasures at every shot, throwing concrete among the cannoniers, slightly wounding and stunning others.—One piece struck Sergeant Kearnan, an old Mexican war veteran, striking him on the head and knocking him down. Upon being revived, he was asked if he was hurt badly. He replied; "No; I was only temporarily knocked down," and he went to work again.

Meals were served at the guns of the cannoniers, while the guns are being fired and pointed. The firing commenced in the morning as soon as possible.

During Friday night the men endeavored to climb the flag-staff for the purpose of fastening new halliards, the old ones having been cut by shot, but found it impossible. The flag remained fast.

Official Paper of the City.

The News.

The rumor of the shelling of Baltimore by Fort McHenry proves to be untrue. The government and the authorities of Baltimore have come to an understanding.—There is a vigorous Union feeling manifested in Maryland. The occupation of Arlington heights by Virginia troops is a bad feature in the news. These heights are on the opposite side of the Potomac, directly facing the capitol and three miles from it. The president's house is only two miles from these heights. From them the city of Washington may be shelled. The government will be obliged to drive the Virginia troops from their position without delay, before entrenchments are thrown up. There are rumors of negro insurrections in the lower part of Maryland.

The war feeling throughout the north continues to increase.

In the destruction of the Norfolk navy yard the government loses nothing worth keeping, except perhaps the frigate Merrimac, of 40 guns, which needed full repairs to be of service.

The occupation of Cairo by a body of one thousand Illinois troops is an important movement, as this point commands the Mississippi and Ohio. It will become a permanent camp during the war, and the number of troops will doubtless be largely increased there.

Important From Madison.

We learn by a telegraphic despatch from Capt. Ely to Lieut. McLean, that the Governor has decided to order out the second regiment next week. Capt. Ely says—"Our company is in, unless we go with the first."

A Suggestion.

The suggestion has been made that the county board of supervisors might properly be called together to make some provision for the support of the families of the volunteers who may enlist from the various towns in the county. The councils of various cities are adopting this course.

War Items.

N. P. Banks has left Chicago and offered his services to the country. It is rumored that he will take charge of the Massachusetts volunteers.

One hundred muskets were sent from Milwaukee to Chicago on Sunday morning, having been called for immediate service by the governor of Illinois. It is rumored that there are anticipated troubles, either at St. Louis or Cairo.

Five or six ladies of Chicago have proffered their services to accompany the volunteers and nurse the sick.

The southern congress meets on Friday.

The pulpit of the Summerfield M. E. Church at Milwaukee, is draped with the American flag.

Red, white and blue is all the rage. Rosettes, ribbons, gentlemen's cravats are of these colors. There never was so intense a national feeling as now.

The Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien railway have an engine named after Gov. Letcher of Va. The superintendent has given orders to have that name "wiped out."

Gov. Randall has ordered that all organized military companies either enlist or surrender their arms.

A delegation of Kentuckians have tendered two regiments to Sec. Cameron, from Kentucky, notwithstanding the refusal of the governor to respond to the call of the general government.

John Fitzgerald, the democratic mayor of Oshkosh, has offered to equip at his own expense a full company to proceed at once to the depot ordered by the United States government.

The Detroit Light Guard, one of the best companies in the west, have volunteered their services in the war.

Gen. King of Milwaukee has asked leave of absence as minister to Rome, to take command of a regiment from this state.

Milwaukee has raised seven military companies, and tendered their services to the governor. The citizens have also subscribed, according to the Wisconsin, over $30,000, for the relief of the families of soldiers going from that city.

John C. Starkweather of Milwaukee, is Colonel of the first regiment of Wisconsin volunteers.

Shanghai Chandler of the Adams Co. Independent has joined the Portage City Light Guard, who offer their services to go to the war. Shanghai always was of a military turn of mind.

A railroad agent telegraphed from Milwaukee to his employers in an eastern city, to know, if, in case he volunteered, he could regain his position at the end of the war. The answer returned was—"Go, and your wages will be continued."

Thirty companies from Illinois have already offered their services to the governor of that state.

The government is about to take possession of the Illinois Central railroad, south of Springfield.

S. Park Coon, of Milwaukee, is to be appointed Colonel of the second Wisconsin regiment. So says the Free Democrat.

Carl Schurz declines a public dinner, and offers his services to the President to defend the country.

LETTER FROM A NOBLE LADY.—The following is a letter written by a lady, one of the best and most experienced nurses in Chicago. Read it and tell us that ours is not a heroic age:

GEN. R. K. SWIFT:—In view of the approach of another struggle for human liberty by the sword, and that I am experienced, strong and healthy, and more than all, love my country, I offer my services to any company or regiment of Illinois militia, to follow their fortunes as Nurse. I have four sons who have enlisted, and would prefer to be with them if possible. For my country, MRS. D. M. BRENDAGE.

Wisconsin Items.

The Bank of the North West, at Fond du Lac, has offered to take $35,000 of the state loan at 3 per cent. premium.

The Miner's Guard at Mineral Point, have tendered their services to the governor.

The Beloit City Guards have tendered their services, and been accepted by the governor.

The Neenah Guards have volunteered their services, and been accepted for a second regiment.

The tender of the services of the cornet band of Beloit has been declined for the reason that their services are not authorized by the requisition.

The Farmers' & Millers' Bank of Milwaukee, have tendered the governor an advance of $50,000 towards equipping the regiment now called for by the general government.

Mr. Lovila A. Day, of Rutland, Dane county went into Madison last Friday with his three sons, each of whom weighs one hundred and seventy-five pounds or more, and saw them all enrolled as members of the Madison Guard. He said to Capt. Bryant that he wished he had ten more such boys to go and do battle for the Union.

Dr. Wolcott, of Milwaukee, has been appointed surgeon of the first Wisconsin regiment, and Dr. L. J. Dixon of Madison, a brother of the chief Justice, assistant.

Meeting at Emerald Grove.

An enthusinstic meeting was held at Emerald Grove last evening. Benjamin Irish presided, and N. Densmore was secretary.

The meeting was addressed by Wm. H. Ebbetts and Charles R. Gibbs of this city. Three volunteers enrolled, and $200 were subscribed to the relief fund. To this fund, Jas. Lilburn contributed $30; Geo. Playter and T. C. Westby $20 each; T. W. Williams $13; N. Densmore, M. M. Humphrey, C. W. Boynton, Harvey Hart, P. D. Wemple, J. Fowle, L. Spear, A. G. Ransom, J. S. Wright and J. Auld $10 each; J. H. Wemple and J. H. Campbell $5 each; J. McMichael $2; J. M. Smith 10 bushels of wheat, Robert Jones 6 bushels, and Sidney Smith 5 bushels.

The following resolutions, introduced by T. W. Williams, were adopted:

Resolved, That in the exigencies of our beloved country it is the duty of every citizen to do his might for the deliverance from the dangers of the impending struggle, whether by bearing arms himself or providing the means for the support of the government, and especially for the comfortable support of the families belonging to and dependent upon those who volunteer to fight the traitors.

Resolved, That the citizens Rock county hereby assure every volunteer in this war for the maintainance of the government of the United States, that his family shall be well and duly provided and cared for during all his absence in the war.

A committee of three consisting of P. D. Wemple, N. Densmore and T. C. Westby was appointed to look after and collect the amounts subscribed for such assistance in the town of Bradford, and to represent the town in the mass convention in Janesville on Thursday next.

The meeting adjourned to attend the convention in this city, Thursday.

☞ Such action as this shows that the patriotic feeling of the north is not confined to the cities where the telegraph hourly excites the people.

Meeting in Milton.

A large meeting assembled at the academy in Milton last evening, —— Clark presiding and A. W. Baldwin acting as secretary. It was addressed by H. N. Comstock, S. J. M. Putnam, S. C. Burnham, James L. Mills, and Alexander Graham, of this city, and by J. McAdams of Milton, and Senator Sweet of Calumet county. The "Star Spangled Banner," and "Red, White and Blue" were sung. It was resolved to raise a company in Milton, or default of that to unite with the Janesville companies.

The true spirit was fully awake, and Milton will respond liberally in men and means.

THE FIRST REGIMENT.—The following is the composition of the first regiment of Wisconsin volunteers:

One colonel, 1 lieutenant colonel, 1 major, 1 adjutant (a lieutenant,) 1 regimental quartermaster (a lieutenant,) 1 sergeon, 1 sergeon's mate, 1 sergeant major, 1 drum major, 1 fife major, 10 captains, 10 lieutenants, 10 ensigns, 40 sergeants, 40 corporals, 10 drummers, 10 fifers, 640 privates—total 780.

A HOME GUARD.—The judges of the supreme court have enlisted in a new military company. Chief Justice Dixon heads the list, and will probably take command of of the company. He has had a military education, and will make a splendid officer. The list comprises, besides the judges, the secretary of state, treasurer, bank comptroller, and many of our most prominent citizens. As published, this list now comprises 101 names.

Shopiere Responds.

SHOPIERE, April 23, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A meeting of the citizens of Shopiere and vicinity was held at the school house in the village, last evening, for the purpose of raising a fund to provide for the families of those who are called to serve their country and fight for the support of our government.

F. A. Humphrey being called to the chair, the subscription was opened, and the sum of $418 was subscribed by the "mud sills" of this vicinity, every dollar of which was pledged by good, responsible men—mostly farmers. The enthusiasm was unbounded.

After this meeting adjourned, another was immediately organized for the purpose of raising a volunteer company of riflemen, and twenty-six were enrolled, and no doubt the company will be full by Saturday evening.

THOMAS HOLMES, Sec'y.

There is some talk about an act of the legislature, to be voted on by the people, making the state of Illinois assume the currency now received on deposit, and take all the bonds by which it is secured.

Proclamations by the Governor.

MADISON, April 23.

The following proclamations were issued by the Governor this morning:

To the Patriotic People of Wisconsin—

In six days from the issue of my proclamation of the 17th inst., the first regiment called for by the President of the United States for the defence of the Union is enrolled and ready for service. Five companies from Milwaukee, one from Kenosha, two from Madison, one from Horicon and one from Beloit are assigned to the first regiment, while 10 more companies have tendered their services. It is to be regretted that Wisconsin is not permitted to increase largely her quota, but her loyal citizens must exercise patience till called for. I urge the formation of companies of able bodied men to the number of seventy-seven each, in every locality where it can be done without expense for subsistence of men, who will pledge themselves to be minute men, standing ready, at short notice, to answer to other calls of the government. When such companies are full of infantry or riflemen, let them elect a captain, lieutenant and ensign and report to the Adjutant General for commissions and orders. It is not necessary that men be taken from their peaceful avocations to be drilled for active service, though when companies are located in large towns it is desirable that they be drilled, as far as possible, in the use of arms. Whenever they are called into service their expenses will be paid. Where companies have been enrolled and have reported, offering their services, they will be first called upon whenever a new demand is made upon the state by the President which is likely to be very soon. I thank the good people of the state for their ready response to my proclamation, and for their patriotic devotion to their country. Signed, ALEX. W. RANDALL.

Madison, April 22, 1861.

SECOND PROCLAMATION.

To the Patriotic Women of Wisconsin:

I know that you will respond cheerfully to my request that you contribute your aid, in the present crisis, in the way of preparing lint and bandages for the use of the army. A much larger amount of such necessaries for an army may be prepared than may be required by the sons of Wisconsin, but in the long war likely to follow, there may be thousands who will require such kindness. Whatever is prepared can be forwarded to or placed directly in the hands of James Holton, Esq., of Milwaukee, who will attend to its proper disposition. Your husbands, and brothers and sons are called upon to aid in subduing treason, in the maintainance of the government and in the execution of the laws. It is your country and your government as well as theirs that is now in danger, and you can give strength and courage, and warm sympathies, and cheering words to those who go to do battle for all that is dear to us.—Bitter as the parting may be to many, I am assured that you will bid them go bravely forward for "God and Liberty," to return with their shields, or on them. I commend the soldiery to your kindness and encouragement and prayers, with full confidence that when occasion calls, many, very many Florence Nightengales will be found in our goodly land.

Most respectfully,

Signed, ALEX. W. RANDALL.

Madison, April 22, 1861.

Volunteers in Easton, Pa.

We notice in the Easton Daily Express, the departure, on the 18th inst., of two volunteer companies, numbering 175 men, for the seat of war. These companies are under the command of Capt. Sam'l Tohe and Capt. Chas. A. Heckman.

Capt. Heckman is a brother of the Rev. Mr. Heckman, of this city, and served in the Voltiguers under Taylor and Scott in the Mexican war. Among these volunteers are several near relatives of Mr. H.; among the rest, a nephew, Edward F. Carroll, son the Rev. J. J. Carroll of the Presbyterian church, Groveland, Livingstone Co., N. Y.

Capt. H. carries an elegant sword presented to him by the commuters and directors of the Central railroad of New Jersey. South Third street was densely crowded to witness the departure of the soldiers. The second Presbytery of Philadelphia were in session at the Brainard church. One of their number, the Rev. Dr. Halsey, of the first Presbyterian church of Norristown, offered prayer. A handsome flag from the ladies of Easton was then presented to each company by Gov. Reeder.

As an evidence of the enthusiasm which prevails throughout Pennsylvania, we add that two more companies were to leave Easton in a few days; the national flag floats from innumerable public and private buildings, the college and schools, gentlemen flourish the "red, white and blue" cravat and bosom, and ladies, girls and boys the national cockade.

All honor to the patriotic Keystone state!

FAST TIMES.—Nothing better illustrates "the spirit of the times" than the impatience at the least delay in the reception of the telegraphic newspaper reports. Even the lightning cannot send the news fast enough. A rumor in the street, started no one knows how, brings scores of excited men into our office, with the earnest inquiry —"Have you got any new report?" and a negative answer is apt to elicit some remark about the telegraph less complimentary than just or considerate. After the despatches have been received, quick workmen and steam presses are tediously long, and we are not sure but that the telegraph itself will yet be voted a "slow coach."

In several neighborhoods in the county, clubs have been formed for subscription to our Daily, and the post of a daily messenger assigned, in turn, to each subscriber. Other neighborhoods are forming similar clubs, and the mail carriers through the county go out well freighted with the stirring news of the day to dispense to those who are unwilling to await the reception of their weekly journal.

ONE TORY IN WISCONSIN.—There is now and then a Tory in our state—just enough to form an occasional exception to the general loyalty of all men and parties. Among them is the notorious Fred. W. Horn, of Ozaukee, captain of the Cedarburg Rifles. Gov. Randall yesterday received a letter from him, tendering his resignation, accompanied by the expression of the most infamous and traitorous sentiments. Its great length only prevents us from copying it entire. It is enough, however, to state, that he characterizes the object of the present military organization as merely a movement "to rescue a sectional party from utter destruction," and as "an unholy and fratracidal war;" adding that "if the Union should be dissolved, the interests of the great agricultural North-west" are not with "the Pennsylvania iron-mongers and New England manufacturers."

Governor Randall replied to this base communication, accepting the resignation, in the following appropriate terms:

MADISON, April 19, 1861.

HON. F. W. HORN—Dear Sir: Yours of the 18th inst., resigning your position as captain of the Cedarburg Rifles, is received. I accept your resignation with pleasure. Patriots will aid in defense of the government, and I want none but men in the Wisconsin regiment.

Very truly, A. W. RANDALL.

—Madison Journal.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. Davis, a brother-in-law of John Lockwood, postmaster, and formerly a willow ware and fancy goods merchant in this city, has received an appointment of purser in the navy. He is here now, but is to leave soon for his post of duty.—Mil. Wis.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WILMINGTON, April 22.

It is generally believed that a rencontre between Fort McHenry and the city of Baltimore had taken place, but to what extent is not known.

A message has been received here that prominent men of the border states have asked for a cessation of hostilities, with a view to compromise.

A train has arrived from Baltimore via Susquehanna river.

The Baltimoreans are making active preparations to take Fort McHenry, whose guns are now turned on the city.

ELKHART, April 22.

The Elkhart Guard, Capt. Munn, numbering 140 men, left at 4 P. M., to-day, for Indianapolis. A splendid banner was presented to the company by the ladies of this place. A large number of blankets, and five boxes of provisions were donated to the Guard by the citizens.

WILMINGTON, April 22.

Passengers on the train just passed, report all quiet at Baltimore.

An enthusiastic Union meeting was held here this afternoon, embracing every party creed. The Union feeling was intense and strong. Resolutions were adopted.

NEW YORK, April 22.

A regiment of riflemen is forming of Italians, Swiss and Hungarians here, to be called the Garibaldi Guard.

The British residents are forming a regiment of light infantry. One company is complete, and the second is forming.

The report that Gov. Banks has resigned his position in the Illinois Central road to command a Massachusetts regiment, originated in the fact that Gen. Burnside, of the same road, is to be colonel of a Rhode Island regiment.

G. B. McClelland of the same road has accepted a brigadier generalship in the Pennsylvania forces.

Collector Barney, states a gentleman officially connected with the government, says he has information from Washington that official correspondence has been opened at Washington with the Baltimore authorities, resulting in an understanding on the part of Baltimore to repair the railroad bridges and telegraph lines, and keep communication open for mails, passengers, dispatches and troops.

Hon. Daniel E. Sickles contemplates raising a regiment to serve during the war.

Major Anderson's public reception at the City Hall takes place to-morrow.

Commodore Vanderbilt is said to have informed the government that they can have his whole fleet of steamers, fully manned and equipped, without the charge of a penny.

AUGUSTA, Me., April 22.

The Legislature assembled to-day. Every man voted to pledge the entire resources of the State to the Federal authorities. A committee on the Governor's message will report to raise ten regiments, and appropriate one million dollars to the military, and liberal provisions for the families of volunteers. A coast guard will be organized. The State is thoroughly aroused, and will do more in proportion to her population than any other State in the Union.

NEW YORK, April 22.

It is stated that a gentleman at Baltimore from Norfolk reports the scuttling of some of the ships there, throwing down the heavy derricks, and the destruction of much of the machinery by order of the government.

The Pawnee arrived at Norfolk Sunday morning.

Mayor Wood's message to-night will recommend the appropriation of one million dollars by the city to aid in the war.

A resolution will be offered to appropriate half a million dollars to the widows and orphans of the men who may fall in defense of the flag.

A lot of uniforms for the southern army have been seized at a store in Dey street.

It appears that a diabolical attempt was made to poison the Massachusetts volunteers aboard the State of Maine, while here Friday evening last, by sending poisoned brandy aboard. One died and four or five others have been under its influence, but will probably recover. The perpetrator of the outrage is unknown.

BOSTON, April 21.

The meeting in State street continued from ten o'clock in the forenoon till night. The enthusiasm was unparalleled.

BOSTON, April 22.

Several of the Massachusetts military, wounded at Baltimore, reached here this morning. Among them were Mr. Stevens of Lowell, who was reported dead. He had three ribs broken by paving stones. Mr. Stevens states that fifteen wounded Baltimoreans were taken to the station house with him. He intends to return to his regiment as soon as he is able to do so.

NEWARK, N. J., April 22.

An immense Union meeting was held here to-day, Mayor Bigelow presiding. It is estimated that 50,000 people were present. Great enthusiasm was manifested, and the American flags were displayed in profusion. The city has the appearance of a military camp. Recruiting goes on rapidly.

PROVIDENCE, April 22.

Four times the amount advertised for by the general treasurer as the first installment of the loan authorized by the state, was offered to-day at 6 per cent.

ALBANY, April 22.

The state authorities have decided to muster into immediate service the balance of the quota of militia authorized by the act to enroll the volunteer militia. This gives 17,000 troops in addition to the 17 regiments previously ordered, in conformity with the call of the president. Volunteer companies are coming in rapidly. 90 already handed in their muster rolls.

LATER.—In the democratic Union meeting Erastus Corning presided. A resolution was passed pledging the entire party to stand firm to the Union.

The common council appropriated $30,000 for families of volunteers.

The Bank of Poughkeepsie has tendered the government $100,000, and the Albany $10,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 22.

Sixty companies, the full number required from Indiana, have been accepted by the Governor. 35 companies more have tendered their services, and information of 100 additional companies forming, has been received. 56 companies have been in camp to-day.

ST. LOUIS, April 22.

Gov. Jackson has called an extra session of the legislature, to meet on Thursday, May 2d, for the purpose of enacting such laws and adopting such measures as may be necessary for the more perfect organization and equipment of the militia of the state, and raise money and such other means as may be required to place the state in a proper attitude for defense. Adjt. Gen. Hough has issued orders to the commanding officers of each military district to assemble their respective commands on the 3d of May and go into encampment for six days, as provided by law. The strength, organization and equipment of the several commands are to be reported at once to headquarters, and division inspectors are required to give all information respecting the condition of the state forces.

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.

LOUISVILLE, April 22.

Seven companies of state guards, with an aggregate of 650 men, under the command of Col. Tilghman, have organized at Paducah, Ky.

HARRISBURG, April 22.

Three hundred regulars have been sent from here to Cockeysville, which is only fifteen miles from Baltimore, to hold that position.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

BELAIRE, O., April 22.

Hon. S. A. Douglas and lady passed west this afternoon, en route for Springfield, Ill.

CAIRO, April 22.

The regiment that left Chicago last night, arrived here safely at 11 o'clock to-night.

NEW YORK, April 23.

A gentleman from Washington reports Baltimoreans telegraphed to Harper's Ferry for Virginia troops to come to their support. The house of Henry Winter Davis was entered by a mob but he having left his family was not molested. The hall of the German Teurners was sacked. The citizens of Cockeyville were holding a Union meeting when two omnibus loads of Baltimore police and soldiers came up to burn the bridges to the Pennsylvania line. They were attacked and dispersed by the Union men who formed guards and protected the bridges until the arrival of the Pennsylvania troops. Fears of an extended conspiracy among the negroes existed in St. Mary county and the roads were constantly patrolled by mounted men.

FARTHER POINT, April 23.

The steamship Juraz with five days later news from Europe is signaled.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.

A splendid uniform for a major general in a case bound south, was seized yesterday.

Fort Mafflin has been garrisoned by artillery companies and guns and rifles.

A piratical vessel had been seen in the bay, alleged to be manned by fifty men and had stopped a tug off Chester and compelled the captain to haul down the American flag.

Private information from Baltimore says the mob element is powerless to act with system, arms are plenty, but no ammunition. It is believed, however, that the people and mob will unite to prevent the passage of troops through the city. The troops will be compelled to fight their way step by step. The railroad between Baltimore and Washington was to be obstructed yesterday and some of the bridges destroyed. People south of the Susquehanna are loyal to the Union and will assist in defending Havre de Grace against secessionists.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.

23 women, nearly all between the ages of 18 and 25, have enrolled themselves here as nurses.

The Baltimore American of Monday confirms the scuttling of the Pennsylvania, Columbus, Delaware, Raritan and Merrimac at Norfolk, by order of Capt. Pendergrast, and the destruction of their arms. The only vessels saved to carry away the government forces, were the Powhatton and Cumberland. The ship houses were being torn down and factories levelled to the ground with the intention of firing and abandoning them.

Saturday night the mayor of Portsmouth sent a flag of truce to Pendergrast, to ask if he intended to fire on the towns. He replied that he should act altogether on the defensive; if fired upon, or the navy yard was attacked, it would be his duty to fire upon the two cities. It was not known whether the Pawnee entered the harbor or returned to Fort Monroe. The excitement at Norfolk and Portsmouth was intense. Women and children were flying and men were rallying to arms. It was expected that the ship of the line New York, on the stocks, would be fired before this yard is abandoned. Levelling buildings by blowing them up with powder was going on, and it is thought there would be an effort to destroy all. It was feared that the conflagration might extend to the cities.

The people of Norfolk have seized the powder house at Craney Island, and removed the powder to the city, and are making arrangements for a vigorous defense.

HARRISBURG, April 23.

Caleb Cushing arrived here yesterday. He left for Washington on Sunday. He says that Gen. Lee with 5000 Virginia troops are covering Arlington heights. Lt. Jeuniffer is reported as having deserted from Carlisle barracks. He had full knowledge of the plans of the government. Despatches for his arrest have been sent in every direction. Caleb Cushing narrowly escaped injury from people of Carlisle and Chambersburg. He stated that he was on his way to Massachusetts to join a regiment for the defence of the Union.

BOSTON, April 23.

A private despatch to Messrs. Sprague & Co., from Philadelphia states that the government has released the steamer from her charter to convey troops from Philadelphia, in consequence of Maryland having guaranteed the safe transit of 5000 troops thro' Baltimore daily.

MONTREAL, April 23.

Numerous telegraphic despatches received here ordering arms. Consul Giddings has arrived here.

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.

Silly reports have been afloat all day that Baltimore has been shelled, that a mob had burned the cathedral because the arch Bishop displayed the American flag, and that Col Fremont had arrived at N. Y. with a quarter million of muskets from England.

ANNAPOLIS, Sunday.

It is said Gov. Hicks protested to Gen. Butler of the Massachusetts, against landing troops here. They were consequently landed at the naval academy, which is the exclusive property of the government.

The following is from the Baltimore American:

"Mayor Brown of Baltimore went to Washington, Sunday, at the request of the President, and had a long interview in the presence of the cabinet and Gen. Scott. The President urged the absolute necessity of transit through Baltimore. Gen. Scott's opinion was to bring the troops through Maryland, avoiding Baltimore, if the people would permit; if not, troops must select their own best route, and if need be, must fight their way through.

"The President and Secretary of War heartily concurred in the desire to avoid collision. The mayor said the authorities would use all lawful means to prevent parties leaving the city to attack troops passing at a distance, but was unable to promise more. The President said that no more troops would be sent through the city unless obstructed in other directions. The understanding was that the city authorities use their best efforts to restrain the people."

Regimental Order No. 1.

HEAD QUARTERS OF WIS. ACTIVE MILITIA, MILWAUKEE, April 22d, 1861.

The following companies are ordered in to the First Regiment of Wisconsin State Active Militia, by the Commander-in-Chief, Hon. A. W. Randall:

"Governor's Guard" and "Madison Guard," located at Madison. "Milwaukee Light Guard," "Union Rifle Company," "Black Yagers," "Milwaukee Rifles" and "Montgomery Guards," located at Milwaukee. "Park City Greys," located at Kenosha. "Horicon Guard," located at Horicon, and the "Beloit City Guard," located at Beloit.

Each company will be composed of 1 Captain; 1 Lieutenant; 1 Ensign; 4 Sergeants; 4 Corporals; 1 Drummer; 1 Fifer and 64 Privates—being in all 77 men rank and file.

Companies will elect their officers immediately, reporting the names to Adjutant General's office, and receive their commissions.

The regiment will rendezvous at Milwaukee, and the Commandants are hereby ordered to place their companies in marching trim, and report them so at once by telegraph, when further orders will be issued immediately.

Each Commandant is authorized to furnish quarters to the men enlisted, making as advantageous terms as possible, consistent with their comfort, until orders to rendezvous at Milwaukee.

Applications for arms and munitions of all kinds will be made at Head Quarters of regiment; office in State Bank of Wisconsin building, Milwaukee; certificates will then be issued, and payments made at Quarter Master's office, which is in the same building.

JOHN C. STARKWEATHER,
Col. of the 1st reg. Wis. Active Militia.

WISCONSIN VOLUNTEERS.—The Madison Argus of yesterday says:

The following companies will certainly go in the first regiment from this state:

Governor's Guard, Madison.
Madison Guard, "
Park City Greys, Kenosha.
Horicon Guard, Horicon.
Light Guard, Milwaukee.
Montgomery Guard, Milwaukee.
Milwaukee Rifles, "
Black Yager Rifles, " Union Rifles, "

The tenth company will be either the Beloit City Guard or the Fond du Lac Badgers.

Seventeen full companies have already tendered their services to the governor of the state, besides the Milwaukee Artillery and dragoon companies, which cannot be received under the present call.

It is generally believed that Capt. Starkweather, of the Milwaukee Light Guard, will be appointed colonel of the first Wisconsin regiment, and that C. L. Harris, of this city, will be lieutenant colonel. Col. Lain, of Kenosha, it is thought, will be major.

AN IRISH CRY FOR WAR.—This week's Tablet, a leading organ of the Irish population of New York city, says:

The President has called for seventy-five thousand men, and summoned a special session of Congress. New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio have already spoken out. The United States government must put forth all its energy to put down the rebellion, and every true man must stand up for the stars and stripes. God save the Union!

The St. Louis arsenal is now garrisoned by seven hundred regulars under Capt. Lyon—the whole under Gen. Harney, who has caused embankments to be thrown up around it, and cannon planted for a vigorous defense. It is deemed impregnable.—Gen. Harney says he owes allegiance only to his flag. I have this from a gentleman who conversed with him yesterday. The loyal citizens of St. Louis have full faith in his honor as a soldier. There are about seventy thousand stand of arms there, including a number of improved rifles; and workmen are employed all the time in altering the old pieces to new patterns.

Capt. A. P. Corder, a secessionist of Carbondale, Illinois, got a swivel or a blunderbuss loaded at that point, and threatens to fire on any train that attempts to pass to Cairo with war material. It is hoped that the Chicago boys, ordered to Cairo, have distributed some grape in Capt. Corder's vicinity.

ACCIDENT AT MONROE.—Three or four young men were firing a cannon, in honor of the newly raised company of volunteers, at Monroe yesterday, when, by the premature discharge of the gun, two of them were badly injured. Judson Hurlbut, a volunteer, had his right arm from the elbow, blown to pieces, which was amputated, and his left hand partially destroyed; a son of the Rev. Morris, Presbyterian clergyman of Monroe, was so badly injured that it became necessary to amputate his right arm. They were doing well when last heard from, and expected to recover.

WAR MEETING.

The patriotic citizens of

ROCK COUNTY,

will meet in the city of

JANESVILLE,

On THURSDAY, the 25TH OF APRIL, to consult together upon the present condition of our country, and to take such action as the exigency of the times demand.

Patriots rally to the call of your country.

[Signed by two hundred citizens of the county.]

Meeting at Afton.

There will be a meeting of the loyal and patriotic people of the town of Rock, at Afton, on Wednesday night next, to consider what measures are necessary to provide means for the families of volunteer soldiers and procure enlistments for the defence of the country. Messrs. Sloan and Merrill will address the meeting.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Meetings will be held at the following places the present week, for the purpose of soliciting means for the support of the families of those who join volunteer companies, and to take the names of such as desire to enlist for the defense of his country. Addresses will be delivered by Messrs. Ebbets, Comstock and Gibbs.

Footville " Tuesday "
Evansville " Wednesday "

ROCK COUNTY BANK.—The terms upon which the Rock County Bank offered to take a part of the state loan were $5,000 at 1 per cent. premium; $5,000 at ½ per cent. premium; $15,000 at par.

☞ Dr. Chittenden offers to render medical aid gratuitously, in and about the city, to the families of those who have enlisted in the United States service, during the war.

WELL AND PATRIOTICALLY DONE.—It is usual for the choir of the Congregational church in this city to introduce the services with a voluntary. Last Sabbath evening a large congregation was electrified, as the choir, unexpectedly, sung with their accustomed skill and power, the following patriotic words:

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died;
Land of the pilgrim's pride;
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country! thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Many an eye moisted with tears, and every heart beat with emotions of pride and gratitude, as the sentiments and song came upon the ears of the multitude. So we say, "Let freedom RING."

DEPARTURE FOR CALIFORNIA.—Even the intense war feeling was diverted to-day by the preparations for the departure of a California emigrant company and train under the command of James A. Leonard. The company consists of 33 men, and the families of Mr. Leonard, R. Ely, and J. Roach. The train comprises 85 horses, 10 wagons, 3 sulkies and 2 skeleton wagons. The entire outfit is estimated to cost $30,000.—Among the wagons are two fitted with all the conveniences and some of the luxuries of a well-furnished dwelling. At Omaha, Mr. Leonard will add to his train 75 full-blooded cattle. Mr. L. has among his horses a noble 5 year old, named "Doctor," purchased in St. Lawrence county, N. Y., for $350, which is a favorite animal with his wife, and will be driven by her.

This company goes via. Salt Lake, and expects to reach its destination the 1st of September. Mr. Leonard has been an active and valuable citizen, and we regret to chronicle his departure from a community where he is universally respected and esteemed.

EDGERTON.—We learn from Dr. Lord, of Edgerton, that $500 has been subscribed by the citizens of Edgerton to enroll a company in that village for the use of the government. The right spirit prevails everywhere.

CORRECTION.—Our compositor in correcting the proof of the subscriptions to the relief fund yesterday, left Grant & Long's donation $100 and Dr. R. B. Treat's $10. The amount should have been Dr. Treat $100, and Grant & Long $10. The Doctor's name was somehow omitted on the first list furnished the treasurer of the fund, from which we copied Saturday, though his liberal subscription was the third one tendered.

GO ON WITH ENLISTMENTS.—E. D. Tallman, Esq., of this city, has received notice from the governor to forward enlistments as rapidly as possible, to be ready for any future calls of the government, "daily expected." Enlistments may be made at the store of Ira Justin, Jr., of this city, or E. D. Tallman's office.

On the Death of Ida M. E. Shelton.

One day a band of Angels
Gathered close around the throne,
And softly touched their golden harps,
As they viewed their Saviour's crown.

For He to them had spoken,
Not very long before,
"My crown is not yet finished
I want one jewel more."

And in looking down from Heaven,
They saw your darling one,
Gathered close in your embrace,
As though she was their own;

Quite forgetting she was lent you
To cheer your hearts awhile,
By her little joyous presence,
And her happy, beaming smile;

For His word was long since given
To you and every one,
"Make not to yourselves idols,
But worship Me alone."

And so He took your Ida
Up to his home on high,
And there, safe on his bosom,
She can never die.

Your treasure is in Heaven,
There may your hearts be too,
And may you meet your Ida
Among the pure and true.

A FRIEND.

The Ladies' Meeting.

The ladies of Janesville met yesterday afternoon, in the parlor of the Hyatt House, to take the necessary steps towards furnishing flags to the volunteer companies of Janesville.

Mrs. J. T. Wright was elected President, Mrs. A. A. Jackson Secretary, and Mrs. E. S. Goodspeed Treasurer. Mrs. Peter Myers and Z. S. Doty were appointed by the president to visit the ladies residing on the east side of the river and solicit subscriptions. Mrs. H. Palmer and Mrs. W. H. Ebbets were appointed to visit the ladies on the west side of the river, for the same purpose.

Mrs. H. Palmer and Mrs. J. T. Wright were elected a committee to extend to Wm. A. Ebbetts Esq., an invitation to present in behalf of the ladies of Janesville, a flag to the volunteer company commanded by Capt. George B. Ely.

The star spangled banner was then sung by all present. The meeting then adjourned to meet on Wednesday morning next, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. H. P. Burroughs, on the corner of Franklin and Dodge sts. MRS. A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

Light Guard Meeting.

The Light Guard held a meeting last evening and adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, An organized armed force of rebels have raised a strong and traitorous hand against the government, and

WHEREAS, We consider it the duty of every American citizen to either fight or furnish money and means, it is hereby

Resolved, That we, the Janesville Light Guard, do hereby tender our services to the government to fight under the stars and stripes, for the honor, glory and protection of our country.

Resolved, That as we do not consider it our duty to fight and furnish money, the citizens of the city and county are earnestly requested to aid us in our attempt to protect their rights and liberties.

The Light Guard is a company organized in this city a short time since, and is composed of a body of men who will make efficient soldiers—intelligent, brave, and of good repute among their neighbors. Its ranks are rapidly filling up, and applications for admission, (which will be submitted to a vote of the company,) may be made to Capt. H. A. Patterson. The tender of services has been accepted and placed on file by the governor.

THE CAVALRY COMPANY.—The following are the names composing the cavalry company, just raised in this city. They meet on Thursday for the election of officers. It will do good service in the cause of the country.

To the Public.
THE undersigned takes this method of notifying his friends and the public that he has leased, for a term of years, the East half of the Hyatt House building in this city, for the purposes of a
FIRST CLASS HOTEL,
to be kept under his own management and direction, and to be opened on or about the First Day of May Next.
Prior to opening the house, he deems it proper to say that that portion of the building leased by himself, will be entirely REMODELED, and when the changes are completed, he flatters himself that the
NEW HYATT HOUSE
will be found to be the most convenient and comfortable in the west. In this notice he does not deem it necessary to state any changes he proposes to make, except that the office, instead of being where it now is, will be located on the first floor in the Eastern end of the building, while the Large Hall, 40 by 100 Feet, on the second floor, in the Western side of the building will be connected with the hotel and converted into a room suitable for THEATERS, CONCERTS AND DANCING PARTIES, making it one of the largest, most desirable and convenient public halls in the state.
Having had considerable experience as a hotel keeper in this city, in the old "American House" he hopes to be able (after the time above stated) to make the New Hyatt House a comfortable and desirable Home, for all who may choose to place themselves under his care.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDER.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, - - $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
